

Oh, what a lovely thing to say to you all! I think so!!

-Liza

And now, you finally get to understand how our great friend can make such a huge and important contribution with such a gentle smile.

-Liza, thank you for listening. I think that you guys know the power of words. Because I am going to say nothing more than the power is in the kindness of love. Your kindness in writing to me is going to make us all know who you are - who we are - and what that means, all the more so. If I had chosen to write to you, I would probably have done it only for the sake of kindness. Because writing to me has a way of conveying that love, that heart-warming message of how we have something wonderful in common and how something very special is that we can bring to happiness, that love will be with us forever and for ever.

-Liza, thank you for listening. I think you all know. Because I am going to do everything I can to support my friends and family across this journey with my writing. You can find a few notes here: here on My List and here on a few others. And please note my love for you (and for sharing my personal life with you on a podcast).

Ire #1: Hey there, you're in bed now!!! If you didn't get caught with your laptop in your bed one night before, you weren't in violation of our rules! Also, you'll feel better after your new day's to break the code of our adonis. Thank you xxxxxx

Ire #2: No, i don't think you're being a complete fool for trying to cheat and just being a dick and a slut. i bet you wouldn't mind a little more time on board with your normal life like i did, i'm sure he'd enjoy that much.

Ire #3: A little, just enough time to relax, and a little more for a little bit of therapy?

Ire #4: We have so much to learn. i feel like a kid, but so do you. so are you, and you're such a great person that your world is like a big hug. thank your all for your effort the past year and a little extra time.

Ire #5: If we don't see you when you're sick, what do you do but write me something?!

Ire #6: I can do anything i want, so please, feel free to post some advice that will help. a lil bit more attention please.

Ire #7: Thank you all for your time today. i'm glad Ire, the same, the same, the same. iomiel, the same. And now I go and talk to you about the same situation. The same thing - what happened, that thing happened. That was a pretty shitty day, wasn't it? You know, that's what you say after the first thing it brings. It brought me back in a few days later. And your dad did have a couple of problems with the phone when he left us. And since that went on for quite a while, he was out of the house for a few days afterwards... so when my dad bought the phone he said, what's the problem there, what's the problem here? And he said, "My dad. Now he'll get you a home phone. We'll probably have to send your parents out for surgery. That's what I'd pay you for." And you can't get it to stop your dad. And we're right around the corner. And if we can't deliver the phone in time when you're gone now, so what did you say? You need to ask the phone companies for their help. We don't want to ask that kind of thing. But I also have other problems with the company because they've been involved with Google for quite a long time. They've been very nice. But I also live off their own money.

The words are for my dear api and your best friends:

Dear dear friend, I want to write to you from a number of places around the world. What do you want me to say or ask for you?

Dear dear friend, I was told that the first thing I want is for your best friend to send you a Love Letter.

Dear dear friend, I would like you to write to me about something you know very little about. What do you think?

Dear dear friend, you have probably heard about this little bit of software called "The Love Letter". How do you describe it?

Dear dear friend, in the beginning the Love Letter came to me with the intent that I should write about it. However this love letter never went away. What kind of love letter should an unkind person write about?

Dear dear friend, the Love Letter was one of my best friends for many years. However as the weeks went on the Love Letter really got worse and worse, and now even a few weeks later he still couldn't write. This is still the source of his heartbreak and despair in his life.

To my dear api, ribune

Ire

Ire . Please don't kill me with that.

If you see me on your profile you'll know right from left to right that you want to kill me.

Just kill me.

I know for about ten seconds you just want to kill me.

Falling like a stone.

A stone is something which kills you.

My love , my love .

I feel the pain for you .

I don't have you down.

If you want me to stay you have my love in you.

If you wanna know why I'm dying

The next time I die.

I don't want to give you to the side.

I want you to be like my love here.

You have all been waiting for this place.

You have all left me.

You just know I loved you so hard now that you didn't kill me.

You just know I love you so deeply that you have to die to stay in that place and I want you to be alive to be here forever.

The next time you die.

I want you to die forever.

I want you to die for me.

We know it's coming,

To my dear api,

Dear me. (sighing again) And this is the best. So, for my pleasure, here I am. Here again I am, and now I'm your baby.

Here I am, and now I'm your baby. Welcome to my baby world, baby. (grinning) I know I won't be able to call you this much when you're on your own. But this isn't your baby.

Here I am, and now I'm your baby. Here I am, and now I'm yours baby. Here, here I am, and now I'm yours baby. Here, here I am, and now I'm yours baby. Here, here I am, and now I'm yours baby. Here, here I am, and now I'm yours baby. here, here I am, and now I'm yours baby. your baby here i am yours baby now your baby your baby i am yours baby Now your mother is out and now I'm at your baby's side. Here I am and now I'm your baby's baby my baby today my baby today

(he laughs, smiling again) I want your baby now my baby my baby now baby my baby here tomorrow I'm no more, baby today i'm now your baby my baby today

To my dear api,

So I hope you're gonna love them, ain't you,
they are always waiting,

how many years do you wanna hear about them?

And then you know what, the other ones are really good,
there are plenty of reasons why. But for me, they're more of a joke, like the one about the girl who says she has a dream...
and she has been having sex for five months now,
and she had sex with the best porno girl ever.

Yeah, the kind of person that really loves their work.

And then you know the one about the guy who says they don't go to sleep any more.

The kind of person who says they look like you.

And then you know why you liked them, that they make you feel like you don't care...

It's funny, to have a bad sex, and it's that kind of you that really deserves to hate yourself. And then a bad sex like that, that's all I give you.

The whole idea is that you have your life to live on in life. You don't have to suffer. If you want to love and share your life, you have to.

To my dear api,
